NEW YORK, May 29.—At the immediate opening the stock market was firmer and for some little time thereafter the trend was in the direction of higher prices. The reported end of the fillbustering against the currency measure was one of the factors given strength and tone to the list and this was accentuated by the covering of some of the short stock put out on the weak spots yesterday. Each man had provided his own mount, but one of them, at least, had feiled to ascertain that his horse was cur-broke. When an electric car came whizzing past the column on the Tenleytown road, this particular mount decided that he would not go to camp after all, and nearly broke up the march. The horse completely demoralized the column. The fractious horse was finally conquered, the boys filed Lack into line again, and the march was resumed. Another exciting experience gave the boys something to think about when a hot box was discovered in the ambulance. Nobody had time to get ill or wounded, so there was no one in the ambulance except the driver, and hixed it.

The night was ideal, and the boys thoroughly enjoyed the ride. When Rockville was reached, at midnight, camp was pitched. Frederick will be reached before nightfall, and it is understood that a specially arranged tournament awaist the District soldiers in that town.
